Ode to a Mother Tree

BC BOOK LAUNCH TOUR!

A richly illustrated story for all ages about the thousand-year journey of a Giant

Join award-winning nature writer Jamie Bastedo and artist James Savage in celebrating the release of this timely tale, with lively readings and dazzling images!

"Each image casts a spell that bends temporal reality...There is such reward in taking the time to gaze into them to discover all that feels secret."

— Allison Girvan
Singer, Educator, Nelson Cultural Ambassador

"This is the next generation of The Giving Tree... which was radical in showing the importance of trees in our world."

— Rayaa Liebich
Author of Min Hayati

"Powerful and creative. Skillfully evokes a profound empathy and concern for old-growth trees..."

— John Theberge
Author of Wolf Country

FREE ADMISSION • ALL AGES WELCOME

NELSON
MON NOV 23

The Chapel Theatre
810 10th Street, Nelson (Selkirk College 10th St. Campus) Tel. 250-505-1007
Doors & Concession 7pm • Show 7:30pm

PRINCE GEORGE
WED NOV 25

Books & Company
1685 3rd Ave., Prince George Tel. 250 563 6637
Doors & Café 6:30pm • Show 7pm
Guest Michelle Connolly, Conservation North: "Life and Death in the Rainforest"

SMITHERS
TUE DEC 1

The Old Church
3704 1st Ave.
Doors 7pm • Show 7:30pm
Double header launch with botanist Jim Pojar ("Plants of the Pacific Coast")

ABOUT THE BOOK

WITH THANKS TO OUR HOSTS AND SUPPORTERS

THE CHAPEL · Otter Books · CONSERVATION NORTH · Books & Company · Bulkley Valley Naturalists Smithers, B.C. · MILLS.ca · smithers public library